

Lydia Oliver

(412) 613-4369 Lydia.Oliver@me.com

Education

Auburn University, Auburn AL (May 2025)

Attending the Honors College

Bachelor of the Arts in Public Relations

Activities

Horseback Riding and Competing (2009-present)

- Riding and training competition horses 6-7 days a week and United States Equestrian Federation A-rated (high level of competition) sanctioned competition once a month

Work Experience

Journey Beyond Aspen Magazine Internship (July 2023-September 2023)

- Conducted public relations research
- Created social media graphics for a luxury travel magazine

Bow and Arrow (November 2022-January 2023)

- Seated guests and managed seating chart
- Analyzed restaurant and back of the house to determine wait times and general flow
- Assisted with take-out orders and serving cocktails

The Spot (April 2020-April 2021)

- Part-time Employee: Preparing and working with food and drinks, maintaining the cleanliness of the facility, managing and balancing cash drawers, and assisting customers
- Social Media Director: Capturing, editing, and posting photos, creating captions, and responding to customer inquiries
- Keyholder/ Shift Manager: Continuing my other roles while managing the store several days a week. Assisting fellow employees and being in charge of others' daily duties

Animal Care (2013-present)

- Assisting and leading in daily horse care at multiple private farms and boarding facilities

Service

Storybook Farm (January 2023-present)

- Helping kids with troubled childhoods through different enrichment activities around the farm at a nonprofit organization

Auburn Community Church (2023-present)

- Serving on the Home Team
- Greeting and handing out communion elements as people come into the church